

ELBA

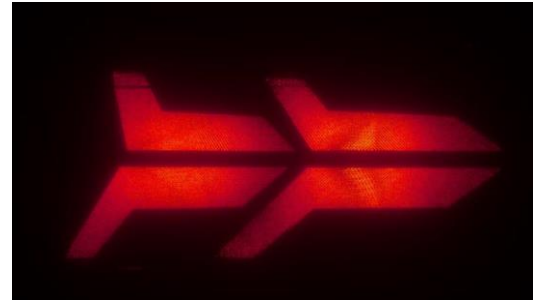

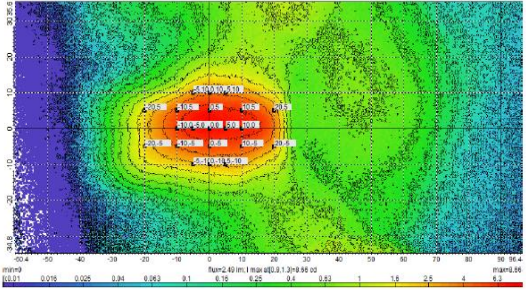

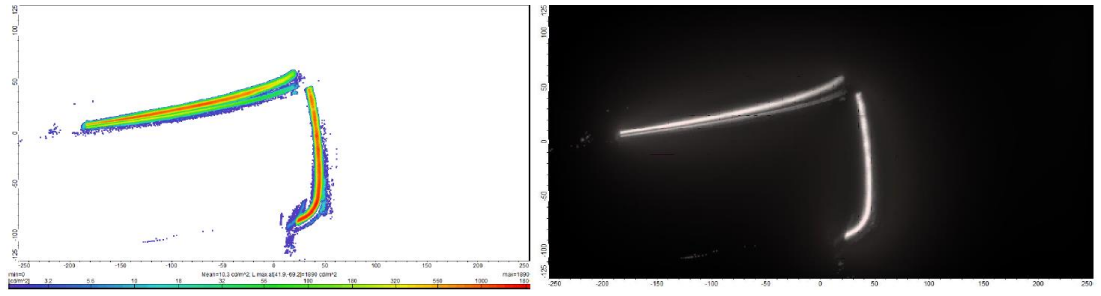

JOB DESCRIPTION – Optical Specialist Automotive

JOB DESCRIPTION – Optical Specialist Automotive

As an optical specialist for automotive lighting industry, you will have in special the following tasks:

- development of optical surfaces with Lucid shape optical software for various optical functions to meet current international regulations and customer requirements;
- define the feasibility of the optical functions of taillights and headlights and provide photometric reports;
- interpretation of international regulatory optical specifications for the automotive industry;
- performs optical measurements of equipment and products assembled with the laboratory team;
- develop concepts through to production, to ensure robust, cost sensitive design solutions;
- work closely with the Product Engineer to develop and implement solid design concepts to meet the requirements defined in customer contract;

Renault Taliant 2021– lighting develop by ELBA Timisoara

DACIA Logan 2021 – lighting develop by ELBA Timisoara

Thank you for your attention!